

- CURRICULUM VITAE-

LOUIS PRIMEL

- 1959 : Louis Gentil Prize (structural geology)
- 1963 : Doctorate in Geology

TEACHING

- From 1965 to 1983 : Senior lecturer at ENPC (French National School of Roads and Bridges) including :
  - Courses of basic geology for civil engineers
  - Geological field trips
- Senior Lecturer at the university of Orsay : Courses on construction materials

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- 1964-1998 : Researcher at LCPC (French National Laboratory of Roads and Bridges).
- Researches mainly devoted to the field of aggregates, including :
  - # Coordinator of the researches of the 17 « Regional Laboratory Roads and Bridges » in the field of aggregates (geology, prospection, environment, testing, specifications, extraction, processing plants, quality control).
  - #French delegate at the European Committee for the standardization of aggregate tests.
  - #Member of the scientific group preparing the new French legislation on the rehabilitation and environmental obligations for quarries (based on the examination of 50 ancient and active quarries).
  - #Co-editor of the book « Aggregates » (Balkema, 2000, 590 pages) which covers the entire field of aggregates : geology, prospection, environment, processing plants, equipments, quality control.

IAEG ACTIVITIES

- From 1972 to 1998 : Secretary general of IAEG
- From 1972 to 1998 : Editor in chief of the IAEG Bulletin
- From 1972 to 1996 : Editor of the IAEG Commission
- Member of the IAEG Commission « Sand, gravel and crushed stone »

- Secretary general of the organizing committee of the First IAEG Symposium on aggregates (Nice, France, 1984).

---