

GeoEarth-2020

2nd EDITION OF WORLD CONGRESS ON GEOLOGY & EARTH SCIENCE

09 - 11 July 2020 | Osaka, Japan

Welcome Conference

On the great success of the first conference "Geoscience-2019" held in London, INNOVINC International proudly announcing the "2nd Edition of World Congress on Geology & Earth Science" (GeoEarth-2020) which will be held in Osaka, Japan from July 9-11, 2020.

The key objective of the GeoEarth-2020 is to share the latest developments on Geological Activities and Researches.

An additional objective of GeoEarth-2020 is to encourage students to showcase their research to support the next generation of geology professionals.

The Conference will feature invited keynote speakers and theme sessions with oral and poster presentations drawn from submitted abstracts.

We invite people from academic institutions, government agencies, associations/societies, students and professionals from geology industry and practitioners from consulting companies.

Best Regards,

Robert Martin, Program Director

TESTIMONIALS

Past Conference Geoscience - 2019 | London, UK

Glimpses

I enjoyed the conference which was small but enjoyable because attendees were well involve din the meeting

- Ibrahim Cemen, The University of Alabama, USA

It was my great pleasure to give a plenary talk at the Geosciences-2019 conference in London. I consider that the conference was very good organized and successful.

- Pavel Kishcha, Tel Aviv University, Israel

Thank you very much. Congratulations for the successful conference. Looking forward to meet you in the near future.

- Piakong Mohd Tuah, Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Malaysia

The conference was organized quite well and it was very interesting. Also I could talk to scientists from different countries and exchanged ideas and experinces.

- Zh. Kulenbekov, American University of Central Asia, Kyrgyzstan

Thanks for your nice thoughts. I am very pleased with your congress and hospitality. Therefore. I would like to attend your second congress. See you at your Japan congress.

- Sevda Ozel, Sivas Cumhuriyet University, Turkey

Thank you for everything technical and non-technical facilities extended to me during the congress and my stay. It was indeed an excellent event organised by you and an wonderful platform to share my views.

- D. P. Kanunga, CSIR- Central Building Research Institute, India

For me, joining your community was a wonderful experience. I hope we can have new opportunities to meet. I will think about the 2nd world congress, hoping to attend.

- Giovanna Capparelli, University of Calabria, Italy
